ATROCIOUS MURDER.

Martha Bell, col., Killed Near Kennedy Sunday Night.

Less Oldham Charged With the Murder and Is Under Arrest
—The Inquest.

Kennedy was the scene of another murder Sunday night, more horrible than usual in its details.

The victim was Martha Bell, a negro woman about 32 years old, who lived at Rollins Clardy's. The murderer was Less Oldham, a dissolute son of Knox Oldham, a reputable white man.

Oldham, who is about 24 years old, went to a cabin on the premises of Rollins Clardy, about one mile from Kennedy, and early Sunday evening called Martha Bell out and forced her to go with him down the road.

He fired several shots from his pistol, probably without intending to hit the woman, and she finally agreed to go with him. After they had gone a little distance the woman was heard begging him not to kill her and one of the occupants of the cabin started to go to her assistance. When Oldham saw the man he ran a short distance into the woods, but when he saw who it was he came back to where the woman was and made the negro go back. He then went on down the road with the woman some distance further. Later pistol shots were heard and yesterday morning the dead body of the woman was found lying in the road, about 400 yards from Mr. Baynham's cabin. Her shoes were off and on the ground close by, her hat was some distance away and her clothing was considerably disarranged. She had been shot twice. Either shot would have been fatal. One was in the breast and the other in her mouth.

A pen was built around the body which was left where it was found and the coroner sent for. The inquest had not been reported when we went to press.

Oldham gave himself up yesterday to Constable Frank Rives. He denies that he killed the woman. His story is that they were fired at by some one not named, who killed the woman and tried to kill him. No credence is given to this story.

Oldham bears a very bad reputation and has figured in a shooting affray once before. He associates with negroes and has brought disgrace upon his father, who is a good and respectable citizen.

If the murder is as bad as reported, the crime is one of the most diabolical ever committed in the county.

Coroner Returns With Oldham.

Coroner Allensworth returned shortly after noon bringing Oldham with him. The testimony brought out at the inquest justified him in bringing Oldham to jail. The trouble in which the first shots were fired occurred at Rollins Clardy's that morning and not at Baynham's. The woman went with Oldham and attended church and was seen with him in the road that evening just before the killing. Oldham denied having a pistol but the coroner searched him and found on his person a 38 calibre Smith & Weston pistol.

The murder is a particularly atrocious one and there is no doubt of Oldham's guilt. He is in jail and the date for his examining trial has not yet been fixed.

DAY TO PEACH.

Former Treasurer W. R. Day
Wants to Confess.

Story of Taylor's Connection With
The Crime as Told by Youtsey.

Frankfort, Ky., April 9.—Former State Treasurer Walter Day has expressed a willingness to go before the Franklin grand jury and tell what he knows of the conspiracy to assassinate Gov. Goebel, and his offer will probably be accepted. Other Republican office-holders are now willing to testify. Mr. Day was on the point of resigning after the assassination, but Taylor induced him to hold on. Thereupon Day left his office in charge of a deputy and went to his home in Breathitt county.

YOUTSEY'S STATEMENT.

What he Has Told The Officers of His Connection With The Assassination.

A Frankfort special to the Cincinnati Enquirer says:

Henry E. Youtsey, of Newport, the detectives and attorneys say, has told more about the assassination of Gov. Goebel than any of the men now under arrest for alleged complicity in that diabolical crime. His attorneys claim for him that he has made no "confession." That is true, and it is not probable that he will be permitted by Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin to make one with a view of securing for himself immunity from the charge against him.

However, Youtsey's attorneys and his relatives are endeavoring to do all possible for him, and have enlisted the services of Mayor Nelson, of Newport, to that end. But Youtsey has made a "statement" which is regarded as important. This statement without solicitation on the part of the person to whom it was made. Youtsey tells of his employment as a clerk in the office of "Auditor" Sweeney, how he was engaged as a stenographer for "Gov." Taylor, and how he carried messages to and from Taylor. He admits, it is said, that there was a plot to kill Goebel, and that some person was hired to fire the shot. He does not name the man who did the shooting or the man who procured him to do it, nor does he state what compensation the assassin was given for the horrible act. But he admits so the attorneys say, that he procured rifle and cartridges for the purpose of killing Goebel, and that he put the weapon and ammunition in the office of the secretary of state, and admitted four men to that room.

Bought Some Cartridges.

The attorneys allege that in his "statement" he says that the shot was fired from that room, and that the steel ball which was dug from the tree in line of the window from which the shot was fired is very likely one of those which he purchased in Cincinnati and that it is evidently the one which passed through Goebel's body. From the statements of Youtsey it is evident that a man now under arrest was brought to Frankfort for the purpose of killing Goebel. He further says, so the prosecution's attorneys, allege: "Dick Combs came to me and asked me to go to Taylor and tell him he and another man were prepared and ready to kill Goebel. Combs said further for me to tell Taylor that the time had come for action, and if nothing was to be done he would like to go home. I went to see Taylor in the governor's mansion and delivered Combs' message. Taylor was distrustful of Combs and said he was afraid that he was a spy. We talked the matter over in a general way, at the conclusion of which Taylor said: 'I have been expecting this thing to be done for a week past? Why don't they act? Why do they trouble me about it? When I left Taylor I went back to the executive building and reported to Dick Combs that the governor was not ready. Combs seemed a bit put out over the answer and went away grumbling. Later in the day Dr. R. W. Johnson, of Jackson county, came to me and said that other arrangements had been made and the man was ready to do the shooting. I started back to the mansion to tell Taylor that other parties had been found to do the work, when I overtook Senator Deboe. I asked him if there was any encouragement. He said: "The latest news is very good. Emmett Orr and other Democrats will vote for Taylor in the house, so Goebel will be defeated."

Taylor's Alleged Statement.

"After this talk with Deboe I didn't think it necessary to go to Taylor and apprise him of the arrangements to kill Goebel. So I returned to Johnson and told him what Deboe had said. This made Johnson mad. 'We have been meeting that kind of rot all along! G-d-d-n-it, go to Taylor and tell him we will kill Goebel unless he says no to, and tell him that if he says no we are all going back to the mountains!' I went back to the mansion. It was about dusk. Taylor was busy with other parties, so I was entertained by Mrs. Taylor in the parlor during the hour's wait. When I gained his presence I told him what Johnson had said. He replied: 'You're this is a terrible thing to think of! It is horrible to contemplate!' I told him that it was up to him, that his wishes in the matter were to be respected; that if he was willing to let the men go back home and sacrifice his office, that it would be that way. It was then that he asked me: 'Do you think that if I have this done I can keep my office as governor?' I told him that I told him I thought he could. Then he said: 'Well, let them go ahead! The fellow will be safe enough! We can send a company of soldiers with him to the mountains, and I can pardon him.' I left Taylor then and reported these facts to—well, Johnson was one of them, and there were some others. Yes, I told Cullen, also. Yes, John Powers was onto what was being done. He gave me the key to Cullen's office for the purpose of letting the men in. He gave it to me on Monday. I didn't use it until Tuesday.

Cullen's Knowledge.

"Yes, Cullen and I talked about this shooting before and after. I don't know whether Cullen knows the man who fired the shot or not, but he said to me after shooting was over: 'There is a man in town that I didn't know was here. I will bet a thousand dollars now that I know who fired that shot.' Later he asked me if I knew Jim Howard, and whether I knew he was in town. I told him that I knew Howard, and that I was of the impression that he came here on Monday, the day before the shooting. A day or two after the shooting Cullen said to me: 'Goebel will die. God has already forgiven the man who did it.'

He went from here to Elkton Saturday morning and after spending some time there the machine will be operated in various other towns within a radius of fifty miles or thereabouts. FIVE BRIDGES

Ordered by The Fiscal Court
Built of Iron.

Dr. Jackson Defeated For County
Physician—Tax Levy
45 Cents.

The Fiscal Court completed its regular work Saturday and adjourned.

Dr. J. B. Jackson, county physician, was displaced by a strict party vote of 5 to 3 and Dr. F. E. Grace, of Haley's Mill, one of the present pension examiners, was elected to succeed him. It is said Dr. Grace is going to move to town. The two offices he holds pay about $1,000. The county salary is $300. Dr. Jackson who was removed on account of his politics, is one of the leading physicians of the city, whose services were very valuable to the county during the recent smallpox epidemic. His intelligent direction of the matter saved the county a great deal of expense and soon had the disease under control. The county can ill afford to lose the services of men like Dr. Jackson, but his place was needed for a Republican. The county levy was also fixed and with an eye to road improvements raised from 42½ to 45 cents on the $100. The main for building iron bridges was indulged to the extent of ordering five more bridges built by the Champion Bridge Co., at a cost of $2,090.

The bridges were asked for by Justices Dixon, Helsley, Fuller, Parker and Long and will be located as follows: Over Flat Lick branch, on Princeton and Clarks-ville road; over branch on Bluff Springs road near E. M. Robinson's; over Sand Lick creek; over Little river, on Pembroke road, near J. A. Willis, over Little river, on Greenville road near Chas. Lacey's.

ELECTRIC LIGHT COMPANY.
Purchased By The Hopkinsville Gas Company.

Messrs. Leslie & Gilbert, Lessees of the Electric Light Plant, have transferred the interests and other holdings of the Hopkinsville Gas and Lighting Company. The two plants will hereafter be under one management as is usually the case in towns of this size and often in the large cities.

The officers of the company say that it shall be their policy to push the best of service to their patrons and by reason of decreasing expenses they hope in the near future to be able to furnish its light cheaper than before and this means the use of both gas and electricity as much as possible. Messrs. Leslie & Gilbert will remain for the present on charge of the electric department. The consideration was $20,000.

Persons have been known to gain a pound a day by taking an ounce of SCOTT'S EMULSION. It is strange, but it often happens.

Somewhat the ounce produces the pound; it seems to start the digestive machinery going properly, so that the patient is able to digest and absorb his ordinary food, which he could not do before, and that is the way the gain is made.

KALOZETIC SOCIETY

Gives An Enjoyable Entertainment At Bethel College.

Young Ladies As Grecian And Indian Maidens Make Decided Hits.

The Kalozetie Society of Bethel College is making an effort to raise funds to furnish the new Society hall in the east wing of the college. An entertainment that proved to be both novel and interesting was given at the college Friday and was participated in by both teachers and pupils.

The audience was a fair sized one but not as large as the high character of the performance merited. Miss Lone Newman, of the faculty, had charge of the entertainment and to her resourceful judgment was due a great measure of the success.

The first number on the program was "Statue Poisoning," being a series of tableaux representing Grecian groups. Eight beautiful young ladies, pupils in the college, clad in Greek costumes, with powdered hair, took part in these tableaux.

The young ladies were Misses Elizabeth Cargie, Beulah Nyberg, Thursa Lowry, Judith Sugg, Ida Schaefer, Elizabeth Garnett, Jettie Hunt and Maybel Edmondson. This feature was one of the most enjoyable on the program. Miss Grimshaw next rendered a vocal selection in a most charming and cultivated style. This was followed by a recitation "The Prodigal Son," by Miss Andrews, teacher of elocution. The piece was one that afforded a fine opportunity for the exercise of Miss Andrews' talents in a line in which she excels—dramatic recitation delineation. She added much to her already high reputation as an elocutionist thoroughly familiar with her art.

Another unique feature by the young ladies was called "Scar Aesthetics." It was a scarf drill in which all joined.

George Clark, charged with breaking into the store house of the Star Palace, at Guthrie, was tried at Elkton last week and found not guilty.

Two Mistrials—Four Defendants Appeal Their Cases and Remain In Jail.

The six weeks' term of Circuit Court was brought to a close Friday afternoon and Judge Cook returned Saturday to his home in Murray. A large volume of business was transacted during the term.

The trial of Charlie Hampton, colored, on an indictment of breaking into an office, was concluded Thursday afternoon, but the jury could not agree and this case also goes over to the next term. There are four indictments against Hampton and bond in each case was fixed at $250. He was unable to furnish bail and was returned to jail.

There were thirteen convictions at this term of court, but only nine of the number were taken to the Eddyville prison Saturday. Here is a list of the names, with crimes and terms: Frank Kenner, striking with intent to kill, 2½ years; Prince Gary, attempting to wreck train, (I. C.), 8 years; Henry Davis, unlawfully detaining a woman, 2 years; Jim Washington and Charles McGaughey, housebreaking, one year each; John Chilton, grand larceny, 2½ years; Major Gailther, malicious shooting, 2 years, and Tom McCain and William Bush, placing obstruction on railroad track, (L. & N.), 8 and 9 years respectively.

Henry Slaughter, Wiley Johnson, Frank Rives and Buss Radford, the four negroes convicted on a charge of the larceny of tobacco belonging to Longview farmers, and given three years each, are still in jail, their cases having been appealed.
